We were in a position where life was becoming impossible, and if we had passed into the region from which there is no return through human aid, we had but two alternatives: One was to go on to the bitter end, blotting out the consciousness of our intolerable situation as best we could; and the other, to accept spiritual help.

- Alcoholics Anonymous (The "Big Book"), page 25

Step 2 Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

Tradition 2 (Short & Long Form) For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority – A loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience.

Concept 2 (Short Form) The General Service Conference of A.A. has become, for nearly every practical purpose, the active voice and the effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs. (Long Form) When, in 1955, the A.A. groups confirmed the permanent charter for their General Service Conference, they thereby delegated to the Conference complete authority for the active maintenance of our world services and thereby made the Conference - excepting for any change in the Twelve Traditions or in Article 12 of the Conference Charter - the actual voice and the effective conscience for our whole Society.

On The 2nd Tradition

by Bill W., from the Grapevine, January 1948

Sooner or later, every AA comes to depend upon a Power greater than himself. He finds that the God of his understanding is not only a source of strength, but also a source of positive direction. Realizing that some fraction of that infinite resource is now available, his life takes on an entirely different complexion. He experiences a new inner security together with such a sense of destiny and purpose as he has never known before. As each day passes, our AA reviews his mistakes and vicissitudes. He learns from daily experience what his remaining character defects are and becomes ever more willing that they be removed. In this fashion he improves his conscious contact with God.

Every AA group follows this same cycle of development. We are coming to realize that each group, as well as each individual, is a special entity, not quite like any other. Though AA groups are basically the same, each group does have its own special atmosphere, its own peculiar state of development. We believe that every AA group has a conscience. It is the collective conscience of its own membership. Daily experience informs and instructs his conscience. The group begins to recognize its own defects of character and, one by one, these are removed or lessened. As this process continues, the group becomes better able to receive right direction for its own affairs. Trial and error produces group experience and out of corrected experience comes custom. When a customary way of doing things is definitely proved to be best, then that custom forms into AA Tradition. The Greater Power is then working through a clear group conscience.

We humbly hope and believe that our growing AA Tradition will prove to be the will of God for us.

Many people are coming to think that Alcoholics Anonymous is, to some extent, a new form of human society. In our discussion of the First Tradition, it was emphasized that we have, in AA, no coercive human authority. Because each AA, of necessity, has a sensitive and responsive conscience, and because alcohol will discipline him severely if he back slides, we are finding we have little need for manmade rules or regulations. Despite the fact that we do veer off at times on tangents, we are becoming more able to depend absolutely on the long-term stability of the AA group itself. With respect to its own affairs, the collective conscience of the group will, given time, almost surely demonstrate its perfect dependability. The group conscience will, in the end, prove a far more infallible guide for group affairs than the decision of any individual member, however good or wise he may be. This is a striking and almost unbelievable fact about Alcoholics Anonymous. Hence we can safely dispense with those exhortations and punishments seemingly so necessary to other societies. And we need not depend overmuch on inspired leaders. Because our active leadership of service can be truly rotating, we enjoy a kind of democracy rarely possible elsewhere. In this respect, we may be, to a large degree, unique.

Therefore we of Alcoholics Anonymous are certain that there is but one ultimate authority, "a loving God as he may express himself in our group conscience."

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Central Office Steering Committee vacancies: Central office steering committee still has 3 unfilled positions: Intergroup Liaison, Special Needs Coordinator and Community Outreach (formerly known as Public Information). Details on the steering committee and the open positions are available at: <http://albuquerqueaa.org/service.html> or by emailing Chair@albuquerqueaa.org for more information. This is an excellent way to participate in service work that impacts the whole Albuquerque area.

The Sobriety Birthday Calendar (page 5) is holding steady as far as how many submissions are coming in, but I know there's a lot more sobriety than is being commemorated in the calendar. Step up and be your group's PIO Sobriety Birthday Calendar representative. Let's grow this calendar. Details on submitting sobriety birthdays can be found at the bottom of the Sobriety Birthday Calendar on page 5.

Article submissions by local AA members are highly encouraged - and, to me at least, are often more interesting/inspiring than reprints of stale oldies. If you'd like some ideas for articles, please email Steve at: PassItOn@albuquerqueaa.org. PLEASE follow the guidelines by making your best effort to keep it to 750 words or less.

SUBMISSIONS for PIO publication (articles, stories, announcements, flyers, sobriety birthdays, etc.), letters to the editor, questions, comments, suggestions and criticism are always welcomed at PassItOn@albuquerqueaa.org and will receive a prompt reply and appropriate consideration for publication.

FULL Version of The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
As it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that He will make all things right
If I surrender to His Will;
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life
And supremely happy with Him
Forever and ever in the next.

Really?! or What My Sponsee taught me about step 2.

by Elizabeth E.

I ceased drinking with the help of a higher power May 3, 1975. Ten days later I attended my first meeting convinced that I could not stay sober by myself. When step 2 came up, it was a no-brainer. I had been restored to enough sanity to stay sober and that to me was a miracle. So yes, I believed God could restore me to that kind of sanity.

I never had another thought about step 2. I didn't have a sponsor and when I did, I never called them. I had some serious trust issues. I got through the steps with the help of sticking with the winners and trying to do what they did.

By 17 years sobriety I didn't feel like AA had anything more to offer me. I suffered from anxiety and depression, but that wasn't an AA issue. For years I was in and out of AA, but mostly out and stayed sober. By May 2009 I became restless and discontent enough to get back into AA and made a pledge to stay this time and follow directions. I even got a sponsor that I listened to occasionally. I was still convinced that AA was only for the newcomer, but I got in the AA wagon by making coffee and helping out where needed. I still had lots of anxieties, but my depression had lessened. I could only make three meetings a week close to my house and never went anywhere else.

By October 2011 I was willing to do anything to have my anxieties lifted and get closer to my Higher Power. I concentrated on step 11, assuming that was my problem, and practiced "self-forgetting" by staying in the present and allowing my thoughts to slow down. By the second day I had a spiritual experience; my whole attitude and outlook on life was changed within minutes at 36 years sobriety.

I had to undergo physical therapy and lot of exercise to get myself ready to get out and about, but I was excited. My anxieties were lifted! I became GSR of my home group. As I was getting my bearings, I started sponsoring since I actually had something to share. The steps were falling into place for me.

Now over two years since my awakening, which I considered an 11th step experience, I was working with my sponsee on the 2nd step. I was inspired to say, "I think it would be a good idea, if you could write down some of the insanities you wish to be restored from. Do you have any?" She cowered a bit and said, "Yes. There are lots of them." That surprised me, so I asked, "Like what?" She said, "It's my thinking. The thinking that got me away from the meetings last year and the thinking that had me take that drink that started my relapse not too long ago." The following week she brought a list of what some of those insane thought processes were.

I had never considered that our insanities were thought processes, conceptions, and illusions. (Anxieties?) Then everything started tumbling into place during the following week. "When all else fails, read the instructions!" So I opened the big book and started reading again: The Doctor's Opinion, Bill's Story, There is a Solution. There it was throughout all of these pages. Dr. Jung said that these vital spiritual experiences are "in the nature of huge emotional displacements and rearrangements. Ideas, emotions, and attitudes which were once the guiding forces of the lives of these men are suddenly cast to one side, and a completely new set of conceptions and motives begin to dominate them." "Wow! That's what happened to me." Then I reread step 2 in the 12x12, I grasped from what Bill said in there that we didn't have to accept all of step 2 at once. A willingness to believe that we will be restored to sanity is enough for a beginning. This is enough to take with us as we work the rest of the steps.

Now I know that anyone can have the kind of psychic change that Dr. Jung talked about and Bill W had. Some people get it all at once and with others it comes in stages as they work the steps, if they really want it. So don't give up before your miracle. And as a footnote: AA isn't just for the newcomers!

But the actual or potential alcoholic, with hardly an exception, will be absolutely unable to stop drinking on the basis of self-knowledge. This is a point we wish to emphasize and re-emphasize, to smash home upon our alcoholic readers as it has been revealed to us out of bitter experience.

- Alcoholics Anonymous (The "Big Book"), page 39

Special Needs Coordinator Vacant. Position needs to be filled! Michael stated that all special needs related bills have been paid. The coordinator is the person that takes care of special needs requests. Central Office pays the bills.

Group Liaison Position vacant

OLD BUSINESS Michael pointed out that monies generated from deposits donated from Media Library during 2013 will be moved into checking account in the amount of $644 from liabilities to assets.

NEW BUSINESS George sent in info to Central Office regarding the upcoming Central Office/Intergroup/World Service/Grapevine Seminar that is to be held in Chicago sometime in either September or October in 2014. It will cost $139 per night plus tax for lodging. Questions about what happens there, and if a report is generated from it (presumably asked to determine whether a report might not be enough, versus sending someone to the conference). Answered that the report doesn't make a lot of sense without having attended. Calculations of flight, lodging, food and other seems to be quite expensive. Elizabeth thinks it's very important and that if money is available someone should go. As Intergroup continues to struggle with poor income it was suggested that going to the seminar could really help to find out what other groups are doing to perhaps generate more income.

Motion made by Christy to send either Michael or Debra to the seminar. Elizabeth seconded that motion. Discussion: Can we figure out about how much, and cap the amount. If it is too high, then perhaps we wouldn't send anyone. Motion amended by Christy that either Central Office Coordinator or Alt. Central Office Coordinator be sent to the Intergroup Conference in Chicago provided that the cost not exceed $1,500. Elizabeth seconded. Motion passed.

Whether I or anyone else accepted the concept of alcoholism as a disease didn't matter; what mattered was that when treated as a disease, those who suffered from it were most likely to recover.

Announcing the 75th

Anniversary edition of the Big Book

AA World Services, Inc. has announced the publication of the only authorized reproduction of the first edition of Alcoholics Anonymous. This new edition will be a faithful replica of the original, with the famous "circus cover" dust jacket and bulky paper (which is why it was initially called the Big Book). The founders wanted the thickest paper to make certain "the members were getting their money's worth."

To commemorate the 75th anniversary of the historic publication of Alcoholics Anonymous in April 1939, the 2013 General Service Conference approved the creation of this facsimile edition of the first printing of the first edition.

Preorders: Starting November 15, 2013 you may preorder copies from the Central Office at 1921 Alvarado Drive for $18, saving $4 over the cost of a single copy if ordered directly from AAWS. You will receive a certificate suitable for gift-giving to be redeemed when the books become available in April 2014. It would be a great gift for the special AAs in your life. Celebrate AA Big Book 75 years and support your local Central Office!
