Step 3 Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

Tradition 3 (Short Form) The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.

(Long Form) Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.

Concept 3 (Short Form) To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A. -- the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives -- with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

(Long Form) As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional “Right of Decision”.

On Tradition Three

“The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.”

Editorial by Bill W. A.A. Grapevine, February, 1948

“Our membership ought to include all who suffer alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.”

This is a sweeping statement indeed; it takes in a lot of territory. Some people might think it too idealistic to be practical. It tells every alcoholic in the world that he may become, and remain, a member of Alcoholics Anonymous so long as he says so. In short, Alcoholics Anonymous has no membership rule.

Why is this so? Our answer is simple and practical. Even in self protection, we do not wish to erect the slightest barrier between ourselves and the brother alcoholic who still suffers. We know that society has been demanding that he conform to its laws and conventions. But the essence of his alcoholic malady is the fact that he has been unable or unwilling to conform either to the laws of man or God. If he is

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Finally - an article submission from a local fellowship member - see "Help Wanted" on page 3. Thank you Kathy G. Pass It On could sure use some more submissions: an article on the Spanish Central Office here in Albuquerque, another on conventions and what they are like and mean to you and any other appropriate subject.

Speaking of conventions - there are at least 4 that I know of coming up in the next few months (Red Road, Area 46, NM LGBT Roundup and NMCYPAA) - see the AA Events Calendar on page 6.

Thanks to all people & groups that are submitting sobriety birthdays for our Sobriety Birthday List on page 5. PLEASE talk to your home group and see if it's OK to submit sobriety birthdays each month - years ago, the listing used to take up a whole page. now it's not even a sixth of a page... and you can't tell me Albuquerque or the local fellowship has shrunk in the last dozen or so years...

If your group or district is sponsoring an AA Event, please submit full information (event, date, time, group/district sponsoring, details and yes the location - believe it or not, some recent submissions have left out this crucial detail).

SUBMISSIONS for PIO publication (articles, stories, announcements, flyers, sobriety birthdays, etc.), letters to the editor, questions, comments, suggestions and criticism are always welcomed at PassItOn@albuquerqueaa.org and will receive a prompt reply and appropriate consideration for publication.

The Third Step Prayer

God, I offer myself to Thee-
To build with me
and to do with me as Thou wilt.
Relieve me of the bondage of self,
that I may better do Thy will.
Take away my difficulties,
that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power,
Thy Love, and Thy Way of life.
May I do Thy will always!

anything, the sick alcoholic is a rebellious nonconformist. How well we understand that; every member of Alcoholics Anonymous was once a rebel himself. Hence we cannot offer to meet him at any half-way mark. We must enter the dark cave where he is and show him that we understand. We realize that he is altogether too weak and confused to jump hurdles. If we raise obstacles, he might stay away and perish. He might be denied his priceless opportunity.

So when he asks, "Are there any conditions?" we joyfully reply, "No, not a one." When skeptically he comes back saying, "But certainly there must be things that I have to do and believe," we quickly answer, "In Alcoholics Anonymous there are no musts." Cynically, perhaps, he then inquires, "What is this all going to cost me?" We are able to laugh and say, "Nothing at all, there are no fees and dues." Thus, in a brief hour, is our friend disarmed of his suspicion and rebellion. His eyes begin to open on a new world of friendship and understanding. Bankrupt idealist that he has been, his ideal is no longer a dream. After years of lonely search it now stands revealed. The reality of Alcoholics Anonymous bursts upon him. For Alcoholics Anonymous is saying, "We have something priceless to give, if only you will receive." That is all. But to our new friend, it is everything. Without more ado, he becomes one of us.

Our membership tradition does contain, however, one vitally important qualification. That qualification relates to the use of our name, Alcoholics Anonymous. We believe that any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation. Here our purpose is clear and unequivocal. For obvious reasons we wish the name Alcoholics Anonymous to be used only in connection with straight A.A. activities. One can think of no A.A. member who would like, for example, to see the formation of "dry" A.A. groups, "wet" A.A. groups, Republican A.A. groups, Communist A.A. groups. Few, if any, would wish our groups to be designated by religious denominations. We cannot lend the A.A. name, even indirectly to other activities, however worthy. If we do so we shall become hopelessly compromised and divided. We think that A.A. should offer its experience to the whole world for whatever use can be made of it. But not its name. Nothing could be more certain.

Let us of A.A. therefore resolve that we shall always be inclusive, and never exclusive, offering all we have to all men save our title. May all barriers be thus leveled, may our unity thus be preserved. And may God grant us a long life --and a useful one!

HELP WANTED

By Kathy G. (local submission)

Early in my sobriety, my sponsor assigned me the task of writing down what I wanted in a Higher Power. She said put down anything and everything I wanted in a Higher Power. She said it was it was important to have a clear idea of what I expected of a Higher Power, before I could start believing in one. I had no idea where to begin, so I finally decided to do the assignment as a job posting and I wrote down what I wanted my Higher Power to do in the form of a help wanted ad. This is what I wrote:

Help wanted. Job description:

This position requires an abundance of patience and tolerance. Need to be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week (no vacations, sick leave, or retirement). Must be totally reliable and dependable. Easy availability a plus. Must be an all-knowing guide, who will always lead me down the right path if asked to do so. Will help me to choose the next right thing and be patient if I make the wrong choice. Must be easy to talk to and comfortable to be around in all situations. Should have a good sense of humor and a positive attitude. Must be thoroughly well-versed in the right values and how to apply them in all situations (and be willing to share this information). Protection services for me and my loved ones will be requested often.

At the time that I did the assignment, I had no idea that my request would be fulfilled ten-fold. My Higher Power has done all of these things and so much more. What a blessing this program has been. Thank God for AA, my sponsor, my home group, and my Higher Power. Today I have a wonderful life that is so much richer that I ever imagined possible when I originally posted my help want ad.

"The achievement of freedom from fear is a lifetime undertaking, one that can never be wholly completed. When under heavy attack, acute illness, or in other conditions of serious insecurity, we shall all react to this emotion - well or badly, as the case may be. only the self-deceived will claim perfect freedom from fear."
