In spite of the great increase in the size and span of this Fellowship, at its core it remains simple and personal. Each day, somewhere in the world, recovery begins when one alcoholic talks with another alcoholic, sharing experience, strength, and hope.

- Alcoholics Anonymous ("The Big Book"), Pg. xxii FOREWORD TO THIRD EDITION

Step 9 Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others

Tradition 9 (Short Form) A.A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

(Long Form) Each A.A. group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its secretary, the large group its rotating committee, and the groups of a large metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary. The trustees of the General Service Board are, in effect, our A.A. General Service Committee. They are the custodians of our A.A. Tradition and the receivers of voluntary A.A. contributions by which we maintain our A.A. General Service Office at New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our over-all public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principal newspaper, the A.A. Grapevine. All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in A.A. are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles; they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to their usefulness.

Concept 9 (Short Form) Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees.

(Long Form) Good service leaders, together with sound and appropriate methods of choosing them, are at all levels indispensable for our future functioning and safety. The primary world service leadership once exercised by the founders of A.A. must necessarily be assumed by the Trustees of the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.

"A.A., as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve."

Editorial by Bill W.

A.A. Grapevine, August 1948

"Each A.A. Group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its secretary, the large group its rotating committee, and the groups of a large Metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary. The Trustees of The Alcoholic Foundation are, in effect, our A.A. General Service Committee. They are the custodians of our A.A. Tradition and the receivers of voluntary A.A. contributions by which we maintain our A.A. General Service Office in New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our over-all public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principal newspaper, "The A.A. Grapevine." All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in A.A.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Nothing much to report other than PIO is back to reprints. I'd much rather read sobriety-oriented articles by local fellowship members, but if nobody writes & submits, what can I do?

My apologies to any people/groups whose sobriety birthdays slipped through the cracks and didn't get published. From now on, whenever I get an e-mail submission of sobriety birthdays, I'll immediately send a reply that it has been received. If you're unable to submit by e-mail, please phone it in to Central Office and they'll pass it on to me via email. Once again a reminder on sobriety birthday submissions...please include: 1) First name & last initial, 2) the month the birthday took place in, 3) the actual sobriety date, 4) length of continuous sobriety celebrated and 5) home group. If you don't submit all the proper information following these guidelines, it may result in non-publication...

The Central Office Steering Committee currently has 2 immediate openings: 1) Member-At-Large and 2) Intergroup Liaison. In December Intergroup will be holding elections for 5 Steering Committee positions: Special Needs, Schedule Editor, Secretary, Pass It On Editor, & Chair. Serving on the Steering Committee is a great way to do service work and isn't as big of a time commitment as you might think. Email Chair@albuquerqueaa.org for more information.

SUBMISSIONS for PIO publication (articles, stories, announcements, flyers, sobriety birthdays, etc.), letters to the editor, questions, comments, suggestions and criticism are always welcomed at PassItOn@albuquerqueaa.org and will receive a prompt reply and appropriate consideration for publication.

Dr. Paul O., In His Own Voice

Remember when "Doctor, Alcoholic, Addict" on page 439 in the 3rd Edition of the Big Book was changed to "Acceptance Was The Answer" and moved to page 407 in the 4th Edition? Now you can hear Paul O.'s story in his own voice when you rent CD #229 at Central Office's Media Library.

Get it today!

"Abandon yourself to God as you understand God. Admit your faults to Him and to your fellows. Clear away the wreckage of your past. Give freely of what you find and join us. We shall be with you in the Fellowship of the Spirit, and you will surely meet some of us as you trudge the Road of Happy Destiny."

are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles; they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to their usefulness.”

The least possible organization, that's our universal ideal. No fees, no dues, no rules imposed on anybody, one alcoholic bringing recovery to the next; that's the substance of what we most desire, isn't it?

But how shall this simple ideal best be realized? Often a question, that.

We have, for example, the kind of A.A. who is for simplicity. Terrified of anything organized, he tells us that A.A. is getting too complicated. He thinks money only makes trouble, committees only make dissension, elections only make politics, paid workers only make professionals and that clubs only coddle slipees. Says he, let's get back to coffee and cakes by cozy firesides. If any alcoholics stray our way, let's look after them. But that's enough. Simplicity is our answer.

Quite opposed to such halcyon simplicity is the A.A. promotor. Left to himself he would “bang the cannon and twang the lyre” at every crossroad of the world. Millions for drunks, great A.A. hospitals, batteries of paid organizers and publicity experts wielding all the latest paraphernalia of sound and script; such would be our promoters dream. “Yes sir,” he would bark “My two year plan calls for one million A.A. members by 1950!”

For one, I'm glad we have both conservatives and enthusiasts. They teach us much. The conservative will surely see to it that the A.A. movement never gets over organized. But the promoter will continue to remind us of our terrific obligation to the newcomer and to those hundreds of thousands of alcoholics still waiting all over the world to hear of A.A.

We shall, naturally, take the firm and safe middle course. A.A. has always violently resisted the idea of any general organization. Yet, paradoxically, we have ever stoutly insisted upon organizing certain special services; mostly those absolutely necessary to effective and plentiful 12th Step work.

If, for instance, an A.A. group elects a secretary or rotating committee, if an area forms an intergroup committee, if we set up a Foundation, a General Office or a Grapevine, then we are organized for service. The A.A. book and pamphlets, our meeting places and clubs, our dinners and regional assemblies -- these are services too. Nor can we secure good hospital connections, properly sponsor new prospects and obtain good public relations just by chance. People have to be appointed to look after these things, sometimes paid people. Special services are performed.

But by none of these special services, has our spiritual or social activity, the great current of A.A. ever been really organized or professionalized. Yet our recovery program has been enormously aided. While important, these service activities, are very small by contrast with our main effort.

As such facts and distinctions become clear, we shall easily lay aside our fears of blighting organization or hazardous wealth. As a movement, we shall remain comfortably poor; for our service expenses are trifling.

With such assurances, we shall without doubt, continue to improve and extend our vital lifelines of special service; to better carry out our A.A. message to others; to make for ourselves a finer greater society, and, God willing, to assure Alcoholics Anonymous a long life and perfect unity.

Bill W.

The A.A. Grapevine, August, 1948

Now we go out to our fellows and repair the damage done in the past. We attempt to sweep away the debris which has accumulated out of our effort to live on self-will and run the show ourselves. If we haven't the will to do this, we ask until it comes. Remember it was agreed at the beginning we would go to any lengths for victory over alcohol. - Alcoholics Anonymous ("The Big Book"), page 76

Central Office encourages all groups to elect an Intergroup representative. Join us at the next Intergroup meeting the second Sunday of every month, at 2 pm, at the Brownbaggers.

Minutes Change the date from May to July. District 12 is planning a workshop, not Michael himself. Why is Ally's report all in bold? Change Mikes report from "it been.." to "it has been". Minutes accepted with above amendments.

Treasurer's Report Looks better this month. Group contributions were up from recent months, but still down for the year. Revenues and literature sales are up. Total expenses are up due to the increase in sales. Not having excess inventory has helped a lot in allowing us to not touch our prudent reserve. Total Revenues: $10,280.69 Cost of Sales: $4,237.38 Gross Income: $6,043.31 Total Expenses: $5,450.46 Net Income: $592.85

Central Office Coordinator Individual contributions are also up compared to past months. Paid income tax for the state. They have said it went through, but have not taken it out of our account. It's $504.00. Waiting for a shipment of grapevine material, will call them if it doesn't come this week. Got large print Big Books in. I invite everyone to attend the 12 step workshop next Saturday.

Alternate Central Office Coordinator Calls are up for the month, but down from last year. 87 regular desk workers. Michael worked 1 -2hour shift. Pam worked 2- 3 hour shifts. One night we did not have a night phone due to a power outage.

Member at Large (Position currently vacant)

Pass It On Editor Absent. Seeking serenity has been submitting birthdays on time- but this is the second time in a row they have not been printed in the Pass It On. Promises birthdays have also not been getting in. I think Steve was confused between the Seeking Serenity and Singleness of Purpose meetings.

Media Librarian Found a lot of supplies at Central Office, some blank CD's and I donated some cases. Debra has helped me out a lot.

Web Guardian Media Library is available online- the link is on the bottom of the home page. Available positions are also on the home page. PIO was e-mailed to

I drank to stimulate thought and blacked out; I drank to make conversation and tied my tongue; I drank for warmth and lost my cool; I drank to forget and became haunted; I drank for freedom and became a slave; I drank for power and became powerless; I drank to erase problems and saw them multiply; I drank to cope with life and invited death...or worse; I drank because I had the right and everything turned out wrong.
