“If we are sorry for what we have done, and have the honest desire to let God take us to better things, we believe we will be forgiven and will have learned our lesson.”

- Alcoholics Anonymous (the “Big Book”), page 70

Step 9 Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

Tradition 9 (Short Form) Our groups ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve. (Long Form) Each A.A. group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its secretary, the large group its rotating committee, and the groups of a large metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary. The trustees of the General Service Board are, in effect, our A.A. General Service Committee. They are the custodians of our A.A. Tradition and the receivers of voluntary A.A. contributions by which we maintain our A.A. General Service Office at New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our over-all public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principle newspaper, the A.A. Grapevine. All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in A.A. are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles; they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to their usefulness.

Concept 9 (Short Form) Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees. (Long Form) Good service leaders, together with sound and appropriate methods of choosing them, are at all levels indispensable for our future functioning and safety. The primary world service leadership once exercised by the founders of A.A. must necessarily be assumed by the Trustees of the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace! That where there is hatred, I may bring love. That where there is wrong, I may bring the spirit of forgiveness. That where there is discord, I may bring harmony. That where there is error, I may bring truth. That where there is doubt, I may bring faith. That where there is despair, I may bring hope. That where there are shadows, I may bring light. That where there is sadness, I may bring joy. Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort, than to be comforted. To understand, than to be understood. To love, than to be loved. For it is by self-forgetting that one finds. It is by forgiving that one is forgiven. It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life. —Saint Francis of Assisi—

NEWS BULLETIN

Congratulations to local fellowship member and Central Office Steering-Committee Member-At-Large Elizabeth E. for having her recent article "Spritual Experiences vs Awakening" (see June 2014 issue of Pass It On available at: <http://albuquerqueaa.org/pdf/pio0614.pdf>) published in the online Grapevine as "Moments of Being" (available at: <http://www.aagrapevine.org/feature/36402>). Elizabeth has had several articles published in Pass It On...look forward to more - she's a prolific writer - and hopefully more will also appear in Grapevine.

Thank you to all the groups and individuals who've started taking the Sobriety Birthdays list (page 5) seriously. For the second time (2 months in a row now) since I've been editor (almost 3 years now), there were so many sobriety birthdays submitted that it almost overflowed the space allotted. If there were 4 more sobriety birthdays submitted, space would have run out. I'm hoping to run out of space and having to expand the section. Groups: submitting your sobriety birthdays is a great way to show others how much sobriety (or how many newcomers) are going to your group in order to attract more people to your meeting.

Articles by locals are much more interesting than stale reprints and show what's going on in our AA community, whether it be events or trains of thought. If you're interested in writing an article, or have one to submit, feel free to email me at passiton@albuquerqueaa.org.

Central Office is currently experiencing a shortage of Substitute Desk Workers. If you're looking for some service work, or have some spare time to devote to a good cause, working a short desk shift (usually 3 hours or so) at Central Office manning the phones is a great way of carrying the message and of getting more connected with AA. Call Central Office at 266-1900 or email Coordinator@albuquerqueaa.org for more information.

There's a new section in the works for PIO: District News. PIO is looking to recruit DCMs or an appropriately sanctioned District rep (from Districts 3, 11, 12, 13 & 18) to write a monthly report on what's going on in their district. Preliminary plans would limit the report to approximately 250 words. This would be a good way to let other local fellowship members know what's going on nearby. If you're interested, or have comments/suggestions, please email passiton@albuquerqueaa.org.

NOTES

There is a need for service work at 7101 Cindy Dr. NE on Saturdays, 7:00pm to 8:00pm for ladies that live in a transition home. They have been in prison and are able to live in this home for 90 days. Call Central Office at 266-1900 for contact info if you as an individual would like to help or if your group would like to take on this project.

There is meeting space available for AA Meetings at 1303 San Pedro Street. Call Central Office at 266-1900 for contact info. Fees are reasonable. Feel free to call her at any time.

RECYCLING THE AA WAY

A.A. Members often donate their Grapevine Magazines to correctional or treatment facilities or they give their "Meeting in Print" to newcomers or friends in the Fellowship. This is a great way to recycle our A.A. resources.

Our Big Book, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions as well as other A.A. literature are purchased by groups and districts for inmates in jails and prisons.

Correctional half-way-houses and treatment facilities accept hard cover Big Books. Often hard cover Big Books at these facilities come from groups who have purchased new books and recycled their old books to the facility. Used or new A.A. Literature is always in need. If your group is purchasing new books, please consider passing on your used books to your local district where they can be passed on to a half-way-houses or treatment facilities. They will be greatly appreciated as they continue to be of service to our Fellowship.

Interview with Probation

Metro Court – Wed. 7/23/2014 I'm David G. and I gratefully serve as the Community Outreach person for the Steering Committee of Albuquerque AA Central Office.

I was recently given time (one hour and fifteen minutes) by the Chief Probation Officer of Metro Court to try to explain a little of AA history and tradition in regard to legal issues that may arise for folks who have "problems with alcohol". We discussed AA traditions and how they were all achieved through the time-honored trial and error process. I gave the officer, hereafter referred to as J. (anonymity), a copy of the Pass It On from June. There is a beautifully written explanation of why El Centro group has asked to change the description of the meetings to include information that court paper will no longer be signed. J. was also given the GSO pamphlet: "Information on Alcoholics Anonymous" as well as "What Does Albuquerque Inter-group Do for You". J. promised to read the literature and seemed open to the information.

I explained to the best of my ability: 1) what AA does not do and why not. 2) the significance of Anonymity both practically and spiritually. 3) the problem of accepting money in the basket (Tradition Seven) from non-alcoholics. 4) that we want to be inclusive and open to all. Still we must value singleness of purpose. J. asked what we hoped would result from our discussion. I thanked J. for such a good question. I replied that I doubted "court paper" would ever go away. It has been with us for a long time. However I hoped that with education the probation and parole authorities could work with AA to achieve a workable solution for both AA and the rehabilitation of their "clients". I said that the "sponsor" sheet needs to go away right now. In at least one case it has not yet, because I signed one Wed. night. It was, all in all, a very positive exchange of information and a beginning step in the right direction. I will be checking back with the Officer (J.) soon and issue a follow up report on progress on these events.

8-12-2014 - Follow-up Phone Call 09:00

This is a brief synopsis of a phone call from David G. to J. regarding the above interview.

> Hellos and Etc.

> Information that this document is being written (on-going) and that I would forward any thing published.

> Information received that Metro Court judges are currently "in transition". Personnel changes should be complete in September. Policies of Metro Court and Drug Court will probably not be open to change before the process is complete.

> J. may reach out to Community Outreach for non-AA speaker request for Probation and Parole Staff information and education.

> Enjoyed the exchange of information and we agreed to stay in touch.

Common sense would thus become uncommon sense. I was to sit quietly when in doubt, asking only for direction and strength to meet my problems as He would have me. Never was I to pray for myself, except as my requests bore on my usefulness to others. Then only might I expect to receive. But that would be in great measure.

- Bill W. (in Alcoholics Anonymous (The "Big Book"), "Bill's Story", Page 16)

Central Office encourages all groups to elect an Intergroup representative. Join us at the next Intergroup meeting the second Sunday of every month, at 2 pm, at the Brownbaggers.

Minutes Omission from July's PIO: the approval of June's minutes at the July Intergroup. They had been approved. Review of minutes from July Intergroup meeting. Motion to accept: Elizabeth, Rick seconded, so moved.

Treasurer's Report Motion to accept: David and Michael seconded, so moved. Total Revenues: 8,015.15; Cost of Sales: 3,100.63; Gross Income: 4,914.52; Total Expenses: 5,545.58; Net Income: (691.01)

Central Office Coordinator Michael combined his and Debra's report together because Debra was unable to attend due to the fact she was subbing the front desk. Phone calls down, since last year, though up since June. Grateful to groups for all the contributions last month, $3,000 in total, a record for certain for July. Thanks to night workers, doing a great job. We did have to cover some other shifts. Deskworker numbers are done. Proposes we state "always" in need of deskworkers vs. in urgent need in the PIO. Subs down, summer travelling making the need for subs greater. Michael: I will be ordering new service manuals in September. Plenty of 75th commemorative big books and chips available, all that's lacking are the customers. We are responsible for providing lit. for AA informational events.

Alternate Central Office Coordinator See above <Alt. not present, had to work desk shift>

Member at Large Nothing to report.

Pass it On Editor Birthday submissions are up exponentially in all the three years I've been PIO editor. Article submissions are really low. If need be I can access the electronic Grapevine to help me when submissions are low. Please be very specific when submitting events, for an event in the recent past I've received event info with different times for same event. I've also received others that don't include place or day. Please submit articles <flyers> in PDF format <and articles in word format>.

Media Librarian Apologies for forgetting to go to Steering Committee this month. At present 24 items are checked out. 299 CD's in stock and are available to rent. Does it cost to rent? Christy: You donate $2, if you return it you get your money back. Question was asked about the possibility of converting our CDs to be able to stream online, the idea had been brought up before. Christy said we have chosen not to do so, quality of CDs are too poor, it costs money to do so, and this option is now already available online.

Web Guardian Events all up to date on website. Query by Aaron as to whether Alli could send an email reminding intergroup members that intergroup was upcoming. A variety of approaches were discussed, decision to be made.

Schedule Editor Not many changes to schedule since we published last month. Today

Community Outreach Presbyterian Health fair in Belen had booths outside, one of them was from AA. Dave R. and Mayra covered it, Dave reported that they received a few inquiries and gave out literature. I (David) spoke with the Drug Court Probation Supervisor regarding our concerns about requiring that sponsors share their full name and indicate what step their sponsee is working. Shared with her the letter El Centro had written. Shared an AA informational pamphlet with her. I spoke to her what AA is, and what it is not. In fact it turns out that this woman, and her supervisor don't even know the role of the sponsor. It appears to turn out that in fact this expectation is coming from individual parole officers. Mike spoke with the Supervisor of the entire probation system for the greater ABQ area and verified that this person did not know the role of the sponsor either.
